LeAnn Rimes scored her first national hit, “Blue,” in 1998 at the age of 13 becoming the youngest person ever to win a Grammy and the first country recording artist to win the “Best New Artist” category. LeAnn has won two Grammy Awards, three Academy of Country Music Awards, 12 Billboard Music Awards and has sold over 37 million albums. Now in the prime of her career, this multi-award winner will bring her all-acoustic show to Orr Auditorium, to showcase her rich vocals, her songwriting ability, and to perform the favorites we all know: “How Do I Live (Without You)” which is the second-longest charting single ever on the Billboard Hot 100 chart, “Can’t Fight the Moonlight,” which went #1 in 11 countries, and “Til We Ain’t Strangers Anymore” (originally recorded with Jon Bon Jovi).

10 Incredible Voices

If the phrase “male a cappella group” conjures up an image of students in blue blazers, ties, and khakis singing traditional college songs on ivied campuses…think again. Straight No Chaser (SNC) are neither strait-laced nor straight-faced. They are reinventing the idea of a cappella on the modern pop landscape. Originally formed over a dozen years ago while students together at Indiana University, the group has reassembled and reemerged as a phenomenon – with a massive fan base, over 35 million views on YouTube, numerous national TV appearances, and proven success with two holiday releases. In an era when so much pop music is the product of digital processing and vocal pro-tooling, Straight No Chaser is the real deal – the captivating sound of ten unadulterated human voices coming together to make extraordinary music that is moving people in a fundamental sense…and with a sense of humor.

A Christmas Carol

December 14, 2012
Orr Auditorium • 7:30 p.m.

Nebraska Theatre Caravan’s A Christmas Carol returns to the Orr stage in honor of the 200th Birthday of Charles Dickens

When Dickens wrote his “ghostly little tale” in 1843, he couldn’t know that A Christmas Carol was destined to become one of the most beloved holiday traditions of all time. The NTC production is probably the most widely produced production of Dickens in the nation, annually performing for more than 100,000 people in more than 60 cities across the country. Twenty-eight performers bring Dickens’ fable of redemption to life as the staging evokes a three-dimensional Victorian Christmas card that literally leaps to life as the setting for one of the most powerful stories of kindness, redemption and the healing powers of the holiday spirit. A full array of traditional Christmas carols is woven into the classic story of Ebenezer Scrooge.
Yesterday Once More
A Musical Tribute to The Carpenters
Produced by Jim Brickman
April 27, 2013
Orr Auditorium • 7:30 p.m.

With breathtaking songs that began their life with Karen and Richard Carpenter, Yesterday Once More takes audiences back in time; recapturing the music an entire generation fell in love with, and fell in love to.

“The passion I feel creating and producing this show is a testament to the lyrics and the harmonies that made us fall in love with these hit songs.”

– Jim Brickman

Yesterday Once More is enhanced with behind-the-scenes stories and anecdotes of the pop culture of the ‘70s, along with lush arrangements by Jim Brickman of songs like “We’ve Only Just Begun”, “Rainy Days and Mondays”, and “Close To You.” Vocalists Joanna Jahn (The Karen Carpenter Musical), Broadway sensation Jen Burleigh-Bentz (Mamma Mia!), and international recording artist John Trones accompanied by a four-piece band bring world-class appeal to this live soundtrack of love, life and heartbreak.

Enchantment Theatre Company presents

The Velveteen Rabbit

with music by Don Sebesky lyrics by Gloria Nissenson

Orr Auditorium • Tuesday, April 9, 2013
10:30 a.m. School Performance • 6:30 p.m. Public Performance
Designed for ages 4 and up (pre-k through 4th grade) but will delight all ages

“When a child loves you for a long, long time...then you become Real.” So says the Horse to the Velveteen Rabbit in Margery Williams’ famous and much-loved literary classic. A plush rabbit, given as a gift to a young boy, yearns for the day the boy will choose him as his special playmate, so that he can become real. This innovative production combines the theatrical magic and signature style of Enchantment Theatre with the musical magic of Tony, Emmy and Grammy Award-winning composer/arranger Don Sebesky. With an original musical score, life-sized puppets, masks and magic, Enchantment Theatre Company brings to life this charming tale of love and devotion, creating an unforgettable theatrical experience for the whole family.
