MORE THAN YOU IMAGINE
Four-time Grammy® Award-nominated, “Bridesmaids” scene-stealers Wilson Phillips take the Orr stage with their band, performing songs from their new release Dedicated, which features covers of The Beach Boys and The Mamas and the Papas including “California Dreamin’,” “Wouldn’t It Be Nice,” and “In My Room.” The group’s members are, of course, children of members from both bands – Wendy and Carnie Wilson are the daughters of Beach Boys mastermind Brian Wilson, and Chynna Phillips is the child of the Mamas and the Papas’ John and Michelle Phillips. Wilson Phillips reinvent these hits from the ‘60s and ‘70s and perform their own greatest hits including “Release Me,” “You’re in Love,” and, of course, “Hold On.”
In 1955 four very young girls walked on to a stage in Hollywood, California, and sang their way into America’s hearts. Their Christmas Eve television appearance on “The Lawrence Welk Show” was the beginning of a career that would see them sing for seven Presidents, perform with nearly every major star in Hollywood, and be welcomed into millions of homes across America every Saturday night. The girls were awarded their own star on the Hollywood Walk of Fame, and they were inducted into the National Vocal Group Hall of Fame.

They will bring their gift of music to the Orr stage, for a performance filled with their unmistakable harmonies, video highlights of their fabulous career (which will surely bring back warm memories), and stories that will bring some laughs. Their show shares the glamour, style and unique family blend that propelled them to fame with millions of fans. Their instant stardom has lasted over 55 years.

As one of the most significant music groups to ever emerge from Australia, LRB took the world by storm with their easy-sounding music and rock power ballads that would go on to sell more than 30 million albums and top music charts around the world. They set a record for having Top 10 hits for six consecutive years — the first band to achieve that mark. “Reminiscing” was recognized by BMI as one of the most frequently played songs in the history of American radio. Their ’70s and ’80s chart success in America includes “Happy Anniversary,” “Reminiscing,” “Lady,” “Cool Change,” “Lonesome Loser,” and “The Night Owls.” The current lineup brings new energy and arrangements to the classic hits. It’s always fun to watch as people are swept up by the show’s vitality and the number of hits from LRB’s history. You’ll see plenty of people mouthing the words “I love this song...I forgot it was one of Little River Band’s hits!”

YOU’VE GOT A FRIEND

The Concert Presentation
Saturday, April 23, 2016 • 7:30 p.m.

A moving, genuine & nostalgic connection with the music of CAROLE KING and JAMES TAYLOR

Two long time friends and collaborators, hit songwriter Kirsti Manna and national recording artist Jonathan Birchfield capture the essence of friendship through music with their dynamic performances. With stylistic comparisons to Carole King and James Taylor, audiences enjoy Kirsti’s unique artistry on piano and vocals with Jonathan’s velvet toned vocals and guitar. The duo takes their audiences back with favorites like “How Sweet It Is,” “Carolina in My Mind,” “I Feel the Earth Move,” and, of course, the incomparable “You’ve Got a Friend.” Kirsti and Jonathan have shared the stage with such artists as Brooks and Dunn, Ray Charles, Jimmy Buffett, Tim McGraw and Faith Hill and have appeared on the Grand Ole Opry. Now they are sharing the stage not only with each other but with the songs of their musical mentors. This concert presentation includes a 24-piece orchestra.
