ENTREPRENEURSHIP POSITION. Westminster College, New Wilmington, PA. The School of Business invites applications for the Sanford G. Scheller Entrepreneur-in-Residence Program. This three-year visiting position is open to applicants with professional experience in areas of entrepreneurship and free enterprise. Preference will be given to applicants with:

- a passion for entrepreneurial pursuits and experience starting/owning/operating their own business
- proven teaching competency in business-related courses.

The successful Entrepreneur-in-Residence will be expected to teach up to three courses per semester (ideally including sales and marketing), academically advise students, attend School of Business and College faculty meetings, develop an entrepreneurship center on campus, plan campus information/education opportunities such as speeches, panels, workshops, etc.; maintain frequent contact with undergraduate students; and in collaboration with the Office of Institutional Advancement, foster external relationships that promote the entrepreneurial activities of Westminster students.

Applicants should possess at minimum a Master's degree or higher with professional certifications. Applicants also should demonstrate a strong commitment to teaching excellence, successful student outcomes, and community engagement.

Westminster College is one of America's most admired liberal arts colleges, known for its collaborative environment and outstanding experiential learning programs. Related to the Presbyterian Church (U.S.A.), Westminster was founded in 1852 as the first college in the country to offer the same degrees to all people, regardless of gender, race, or religion. Westminster has been ranked among the nation's top schools for “Top Colleges Doing the Most for the American Dream” (NY Times), “best value for the money” (College Factual), employment success (Educate to Career Index), graduation rate performance (U.S. News), social mobility (Washington Monthly), women in STEM disciplines (Forbes), service-learning (President's Higher Education Community Service Honor Roll), and other categories. Around 1,200 undergraduate and graduate students benefit from close personal attention from dedicated faculty while choosing from 41 majors, 10 pre-professional programs and nearly 100 organizations. Westminster's historic campus is located in New Wilmington, PA, a beautiful rural setting near Pittsburgh and Cleveland. The School of Business has approximately 330 undergraduate majors in accounting, business administration, financial economics, international business, human resources management, marketing, and sports management. See http://www.westminster.edu/

Applications accepted until appointment is made. Send cover letter, curriculum vitae or resume, statement of teaching philosophy, and at least three professional references to Dr. Robert Badowski, Chair, School of Business, Westminster College, New Wilmington, PA 16172-0001, sbapply@westminster.edu. EOE