Course Description: For instrumental pedagogy classes, this practicum meets once each week. Performance skills on the stringed instruments are cultivated.

Prerequisite: none.
Credit: 0 semester hours; the grade for MUS 600P will be incorporated into the grade of the appropriate pedagogy or conducting class.

Course Outcome: The student will be able to demonstrate developing technical performance abilities on the cello or string bass.

Grading: The grade for the String Instrumental Performance Practicum will be incorporated into the grade of the pedagogy course for which the student is registered. Attendance and participation in each meeting of the performance practicum is taken into consideration for the performance practicum grade. Each performance practicum will be evaluated on 0-4 scale as follows:

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Grade</th>
<th>Description</th>
<th>Grading Scale</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>4</td>
<td>Engaged participation in class</td>
<td>93-100 A</td>

Students must attain a grade of B- or higher in their pedagogy class in order for it to count toward the music major or music minor.
Attendance Policy: The attendance policy in this course follows the College policy, which is outlined in the Westminster College Undergraduate Catalogue. Students are expected to attend all classes.

I may excuse absences for the following reasons: course-related field trips; illness that is documented by a doctor’s note (not including the “self-reported sick in room” notice from the Student Health Center); death or serious illness in the immediate family as is verified by someone other than the student; appearance in court; co-curricular and extracurricular activities recognized and/or sponsored by the College; or another extraordinary reason as deemed appropriate by me.

No food or drink is permitted during the performance practicum.

Academic Honesty: This course conforms to Westminster College’s Academic Integrity policy as found in the student handbook.

Student Support Services and Special Accommodations: Students who have special needs that may affect their academic or personal life should seek resources on campus to assist them, such as Disability Support, the Learning Center, Diversity Services, and Library Instruction. In this course, accommodations consistent with college policy will be made for students who are utilizing appropriate support services. After consulting with the appropriate support service, students are encouraged to speak with me in a confidential appointment about necessary accommodations.

Note on Cellphone Use: Cellphones must be silenced during class. No texting is permitted.
