Course Description
In this workshop, students will develop their skills in writing through one-on-one sessions and interchange with the instructor. Students will work in the genre of their choice.

Course Outcomes
Depending on the genre and project, students may develop their ability in one or more of the following areas:
1. discuss texts, including engaging in an exchange of ideas and offering and supporting insights;
2. sustain controlled, critical arguments that analyze and synthesize texts;
3. understand the craft of writing, including concision, diction, grammar, and syntax;
4. master a particular genre of creative or professional writing;
5. critique peers’ work to assist their fellow writers and improve their own revisions;
6. write convincingly about the art of creative or professional writing.

Assignments
Over the course of the term, students will compose several drafts of a long piece of written work and submit a final version by the end of the term.
