ROSANNE SCOTT CAMP DIRECTOR

Camp Director Rosanne Scott has emerged as one of the top women's college basketball coaches in the region after leading Westminster College to two appearances in the NCAA Division III Tournament during the last six seasons, including a Presidents' Athletic Conference (PAC) Championship in 2005.

Scott, a two-time PAC Coach of the Year, completed her ninth season as head coach in 2010-11. After earning her 100th win in 2009, Scott entered the 2010-11 season with an eight-year record of 114-105 (.521), including a 51-45 record (.531) in PAC games.

The Titans compiled a 22-7 record in 2006-07 for the best record in the 36-year history of the program. What's more remarkable is the record-breaking season came on the heels of an 8-19 season in 2005-06.

Including Westminster's first-ever 20-win season in 2004-05, no other three-year stretch in the history of the program has enjoyed this much success. During her second season in 2003-04, Scott led Westminster to a 15-11 mark and its first-ever postseason conference tournament berth and was named PAC Coach of the Year. In 2004-05, she led the Titans to a 21-8 record and the team's first PAC championship. Westminster then was selected to the NCAA Division III tournament for the first time in school history and posted a first round upset of Dickinson before falling in the second round at Messiah. Scott was tabbed national Division III Coach of the Month for January 2005 by D-III News.

Scott proved that the NCAA appearance in 2005 was no fluke when she guided the team back to the Big Dance in 2007 where they lost, 77-65, to No. 7-ranked Messiah on its home floor.

Some of the best players in program history have played under Scott, including Emilee Ackerman (2004-08), Desiree Sterling (2003-07) and Erica Tallo (2001-05), three of the top four scorers in school history. Ackerman became the program's first player to earn an honorable mention for the All-America team after she ranked third in the nation in scoring (23.5 points per game) in 2008 and became the school's all-time leading scorer with 1,483 points.

Scott is a 2000 graduate of Bethany (W.Va.) College where she earned All-America Honorable Mention honors twice. Scott was also twice named PAC Player of the Year and was a four-time all-PAC first-team women's basketball selection.
