

Westminster College, New Wilmington, PA is seeking a qualified adjunct instructor to teach our course in Juvenile Delinquency and Justice (CJS 201) for the Fall 2026 semester.

Course description: “An exploration of juvenile misconduct and its legal consequences. Theories explaining juvenile delinquency from a variety of perspectives will be examined. The emergence and present state of the juvenile justice system will be covered as well”

Candidates with a master’s degree or PhD in Criminal Justice, Sociology, Political Science or related fields are encouraged to apply. Practical experience working with juveniles is a plus but is not required.

Send a CV and letter of application to Dr. Shannon Smithey, Chair of the Department of Political Science, Criminal Justice Studies and Sociology, by email to smithesi@westminster.edu by July 6, 2026. Email Dr. Smithey with questions about the position. Westminster College is an equal opportunity employer.