

CURRICULUM AND INSTRUCTION EDUCATOR, WESTMINSTER COLLEGE. Lecturer of Education, full-time position, to begin Fall 2023. The Westminster College School of Education seeks a candidate for a 9-month assignment (renewable). Responsibilities include teaching undergraduate courses in educational foundations and general education and special education methods courses. A successful candidate should document:

- Earned Master’s degree in Curriculum and Instruction, or its equivalent, from an accredited institution by August 2023. Terminal degree desired.
- Early Childhood Education certificate, emphasis in mathematics education, or equivalent expertise at PK-8 level.
- Special education certificate PK-12.
- Experience working with children and young adults in general and special education settings.
- Expertise utilizing best practices and current research in teaching methodologies.
- Evidence of proficient college teaching, including face-to-face and online formats.
- Familiarity and experience using instructional technologies for teacher education.
- Evidence of strong interpersonal and communication skills, effective collaboration, and collegiality.

Westminster College is a nationally recognized liberal arts college known for its collaborative environment, outstanding experiential learning programs, and focus on student success. Related to the Presbyterian Church (U.S.A.), Westminster was founded in 1852 as the first college in the country to offer the same degrees to all people, regardless of gender, race, or religion. Westminster has been ranked among the nation’s top schools for “Top Colleges Doing the Most for the American Dream” (NY Times), “best value for the money” (College Factual), employment success (Educate to Career Index), graduation rate performance (U.S. News), social mobility (Washington Monthly), women in STEM disciplines (Forbes), service-learning (President’s Higher Education Community Service Honor Roll), and other categories. Around 1,200 undergraduate and graduate students benefit from close personal attention from dedicated faculty while choosing from 41 majors, 10 pre-professional programs, and 80 organizations. Westminster’s historic campus is in New Wilmington, PA, a beautiful rural setting near Pittsburgh and Cleveland.

Applications will be accepted until an appointment is made. Email cover letter, curriculum vitae or resume, statement of teaching philosophy, and a list of at least three professional references to Dr. Rene A. Pico, Chair, School of Education, 319 South Market Street, Westminster College, New Wilmington, PA 16172-0001, picora@westminster.edu. An offer of employment is contingent upon the successful completion of an extensive background check.

Westminster College does not, and will not, discriminate on the basis of race, color, sex, gender, gender identity or expression, age, national origin, sexual orientation, disability, veteran’s status, religion (except for those positions where religious affiliation is a necessary qualification), or any other protected classification in the administration of any of its educational programs, activities, or with respect to admission and employment, all as defined and provided under applicable federal, state, or local law. Westminster College is an Equal Opportunity Employer and acts in accordance with applicable laws in all of its hiring and employment practices.