

SECONDARY EDUCATION AND LITERACY EXPERT. Westminster College, New Wilmington, PA. The School of Education invites applications for a tenure-track assistant professor secondary education and literacy expert to begin in the fall of 2022. Responsibilities include teaching in-person undergraduate and in-person or online graduate courses in Secondary Education, English, Literature/Literacy, and the coordination of the Secondary Education Program. A successful candidate should document:

- an earned Ph.D. or Ed.D. in Secondary Education or its equivalent from an accredited institution by August 2022.
- expertise in and experience working with students in grades 7-12.
- expertise in and experience utilizing best practices and current research in teaching secondary students.
- evidence of excellence in college teaching, including face-to-face and online formats.
- familiarity and experience using instructional technologies for secondary education (e.g., cloud computing, collaborative environments, game-based learning, and augmented reality technologies) for learning and creative expression within the environment of pre-college education.
- demonstrated potential for or record of research in secondary education, leading to a sustained record of scholarship.
- evidence of strong interpersonal and communication skills, effective collaboration, and collegiality.

Applications will be accepted until an appointment is made. Email cover letter, curriculum vitae or resume, statement of teaching philosophy, and a list of at least three professional references to Dr. Rene A. Pico, Chair, School of Education, 319 South Market Street, Westminster College, New Wilmington, PA 16172-0001, picora@westminster.edu

Westminster College is a nationally recognized liberal arts college, known for its collaborative environment, outstanding experiential learning programs, and focus on student success. Related to the Presbyterian Church (U.S.A.), Westminster was founded in 1852 as the first college in the country to offer the same degrees to all people, regardless of gender, race, or religion. Westminster has been ranked among the nation's top schools for "Top Colleges Doing the Most for the American Dream" (N.Y. Times), "best value for the money" (College Factual), employment success (Educate to Career Index), graduation rate performance (U.S. News), social mobility (Washington Monthly), women in STEM disciplines (Forbes), service-learning (President's Higher Education Community Service Honor Roll), and other categories. Around 1,200 undergraduate and graduate students benefit from close personal attention from dedicated faculty while choosing from 41 majors, 10 pre-professional programs and 80 organizations. Westminster's historic campus is located in New Wilmington, PA, a beautiful rural setting near Pittsburgh and Cleveland.

Westminster College is an Equal Opportunity Employer and acts in accordance with applicable laws in all of our hiring and employment practices. No person shall be discriminated against in employment because of race, color, sex, age, national origin, sexual orientation, disability, veteran's status, religion (except for those positions where religious affiliation is a necessary qualification), or any other classification protected under applicable federal, state, or local law.