

SPORTS AND BUSINESS MANAGEMENT, WESTMINSTER COLLEGE. The School of Business at Westminster College (New Wilmington, PA) invites applications for a full-time, tenure track Assistant Professor of Sports and Business Management, to begin August 2023.

The selected individual would teach a full-time load (three in-person courses per semester) in Sports Management, Business Administration, Event Planning, Marketing and other courses commensurate with the selected individual's area of expertise. The successful candidate will also develop an appropriate line of scholarship, and projects that promote/include undergraduate collaborators are encouraged. Academic advising, service to the School and Institution, and service to the discipline, along with other duties as assigned, are required of the position.

The ideal candidate is a student-centered, innovative leader that will advance Westminster College's Sports Management program to be among the best in the country. The School of Business places a high value on student-faculty interaction, collegiality within the school and institution, and engagement beyond the classroom. This engagement includes participating in recruitment and career events and providing outstanding academic advising to School of Business students.

EDUCATION, EXPERIENCE, AND SKILLS REQUIRED:

A Ph.D. or D.B.A in Sport Management or a Business field is preferred. In lieu of a terminal degree, applicants with a Master's degree in a related field with significant work experience, certification in the field and/or successful experience teaching in a college business program will be considered. Graduate degrees or certifications must be from an accredited institution of higher education (or equivalent).

WORK ENVIRONMENT:

Priding ourselves in our faculty-student interaction, faculty in The School of Business at Westminster College are expected to hold daily office hours, answer student questions in a timely manner and serve as an example of professionalism in and out of the classroom. Westminster College's School of Business is a student-first environment.

ABOUT WESTMINSTER COLLEGE:

Westminster College is an Equal Opportunity Employer, enhancing learning through diversity and inclusion. The College is a nationally recognized liberal arts college, known for its collaborative environment, outstanding experiential learning programs, and focus on student success. Related to the Presbyterian Church (U.S.A.), Westminster was founded in 1852 as one of the first college in the country to offer the same degrees to all people, regardless of gender, race, or religion. Westminster has been ranked among the nation's top schools for "Top Colleges Doing the Most for the American Dream" (N.Y. Times), "best value for the money" (College Factual), employment success (Educate to Career Index), graduation rate performance (U.S. News), social mobility (Washington Monthly), women in STEM disciplines (Forbes), service-learning (President's Higher Education Community Service Honor Roll), and other categories. Around 1,200 undergraduate and graduate students benefit from close personal attention from dedicated faculty while choosing from 41 majors, 10 pre-professional programs and 80 organizations. Westminster's historic campus is located in New Wilmington, PA, a beautiful rural setting near Pittsburgh and Cleveland.
