Temporary Instruction and Outreach Librarian. Westminster College, New Wilmington, PA, seeks a dynamic individual who thrives in collaborative environments for the position of Temporary Instruction and Outreach Librarian. This is a one semester replacement position for Spring 2020. Hours (maximum 37.5 hours/week) and schedule are negotiable.

The Temporary Instruction and Outreach Librarian will support our library’s efforts to equip our students with information literacy skills in a variety of disciplinary courses. This librarian will participate and promote the library’s research assistance/reference services to our students, faculty, and other patron groups. S/he will assist with assessment of Information Literacy effectiveness. S/he will also have the opportunity to support technology-enhanced and online learning initiatives.

Candidates should be working toward or have completed an MLS from an ALA-accredited institution. Current graduate students and recent graduates are encouraged to apply. We seek someone who is energetic, flexible, and enthusiastic about working with undergraduate students. S/he will be an effective teacher and communicator.

To apply, please send cover letter, curriculum vitae, and the contact information of three professional references to Jamie Kohler, Director of McGill Library, at askmcgill@westminster.edu. Application review will begin immediately and continue until the position is filled. The successful candidate will be subject to a background check as a condition of employment. Westminster College is an equal opportunity employer.
