

The Westminster College Department of Mathematics and Computer Science invites applications for a 2-year Visiting Assistant Professor of Computer Science, to begin August 2027. We seek dynamic and innovative teacher-scholars who are committed to excellence in undergraduate education and student-centered learning.

Responsibilities:

- Teach three courses per semester (in person) in a broad range of courses in the computer science program and the College's core curriculum.
- Maintain and expand our current offerings.
- Maintain an active program of scholarship.

Qualifications:

- Ph.D. in Computer Science or Computer Engineering with expertise in Artificial Intelligence or Machine Learning by August 2027.
- Demonstrated commitment to excellence and inclusivity in undergraduate teaching and research in a liberal arts setting.
- Evidence of scholarly potential or productivity.
- Given the current political and fiscal climate, Westminster College does not sponsor or take over sponsorship of employment Visas at this time. To be hired, applicants must be authorized to work for ANY employer in the U.S.

Westminster College is a nationally recognized liberal arts college, known for its collaborative environment, outstanding experiential learning programs, and focus on student success. Related to the Presbyterian Church (U.S.A.), Westminster was founded in 1852 as one of the first colleges in the country to offer the same degrees to all people, regardless of gender, race, or religion. Westminster has been ranked among the nation's top schools for "Top Colleges Doing the Most for the American Dream" (NY Times), "best value for the money" (College Factual), employment success (Educate to Career Index), graduation rate performance (U.S. News), social mobility (Washington Monthly), women in STEM disciplines (Forbes), service-learning (President's Higher Education Community Service Honor Roll), and other categories. Around 1,200 undergraduate and graduate students benefit from close personal attention from dedicated faculty while choosing from 41 majors, 10 pre-professional programs and 80 organizations. Westminster's historic campus is located in New Wilmington, PA, a beautiful rural setting near Pittsburgh and Cleveland.

Applicants should submit via email a cover letter, curriculum vitae, statement of teaching philosophy, plan for research (preferably involving undergraduates), and graduate transcripts. Applicants should arrange for three letters of recommendation to be sent, at least one of which must address teaching. All application materials should be e-mailed to Dr. Pamela Richardson, Chair, Department of Mathematics and Computer Science, Westminster College at cshire@westminster.edu. Complete applications received by October 16, 2026 will receive full consideration, but applications will be accepted after this date until the position is filled. Westminster College is an Equal Opportunity Employer.
