

POSITION VACANCY
Westminster College

Adjunct Instructor of Horn

Westminster College invites applications for the Adjunct Instructor of Horn position to begin January 1, 2025. This position is a part-time, non-tenure-track position in Music.

Rank: Adjunct Instructor. The successful candidate will teach undergraduate applied lessons in horn. Additional teaching may be assigned based on the candidate's strengths, availability, and School of Music needs.

A master's degree in music and prior experience teaching applied horn lessons at varying levels is required. Experience performing horn in professional music settings is preferred. Initial screening application deadline: November 25, 2025. Westminster College is an Equal Opportunity Employer, enhancing learning through diversity and inclusion.

Applicants should submit a resume to Dr. Daniel Perttu, Chair, School of Music at perttude@westminster.edu

The College is a nationally recognized liberal arts college, known for its collaborative environment, outstanding experiential learning programs, and focus on student success. Related to the Presbyterian Church (U.S.A.), Westminster was founded in 1852 as one of the first colleges in the country to offer the same degrees to all people, regardless of gender, race, or religion. Around 1,200 undergraduate and graduate students benefit from close personal attention from dedicated faculty while choosing from 41 majors, 10 pre-professional programs and 80 organizations. Westminster's historic campus is located in New Wilmington, PA, a beautiful rural setting near Pittsburgh and Cleveland.