OPEN TO CURRENT HIGH SCHOOL SOPHOMORES, JUNIORS AND SENIORS CONSIDERING A MAJOR IN MUSIC, WESTMINSTER COLLEGE SCHOOL OF MUSIC WOULD LIKE TO PROVIDE YOU THE OPPORTUNITY TO FIND OUT WHAT A DAY AT THE COLLEGIATE LEVEL IS LIKE.

DATES

Monday, Oct. 7, 2019 for those considering concentrating in Woodwinds, Brass and Percussion (Symphonic Band, Wind Ensemble, numerous class options).

Tuesday, Oct. 8, 2019 for those considering Vocal Music, Keyboard, or Strings (Concert Choir, Men’s Chorus, Women’s Chorus, Orchestra and numerous class options).

If only one of the days works, but is not in your primary area, that is still fine. We can still offer you an outstanding experience!

BECOME A MUSIC MAJOR FOR A DAY!

All participants will be paired with a current Westminster student to shadow for the day. You will have the opportunity to sit in on classes, meet and talk with current students and faculty, and participate in ensembles. Lunch will be provided for all.

This day is more than about observing only. It is about the opportunity to interact, ask questions, and meet faculty and students.

To make a reservation, please visit www.westminster.edu/music

There you can view the Music Major for a Day brochure and click on REGISTER NOW to reserve your spot.

DEADLINE FOR RESERVATIONS: OCT. 1, 2019

ABOUT WESTMINSTER

Westminster is an accredited member of the National Association of Schools of Music, so the curriculum and its requirements meet the national highest standards.

ABOUT OUR MUSIC FACULTY

You will find the Westminster music faculty presenting at local, state and national conferences. You will see and hear the studio faculty at the primary venues from Pittsburgh to Cleveland and all points in between.