

ENDOWED SCHOLARSHIPS

Awards, Prizes and Programs

The following endowed funds have been established through contributions from alumni and friends of the College for the purpose of providing supplemental sources of financial assistance to students who meet the criteria set by the donors. Newly formed scholarships (as of December 2018) are highlighted in blue.

Anonymous Scholarships

These endowed scholarships were established in 1990 for students of high academic ability who have substantial financial need.

Harriet Boozell Abbott Scholarship Fund

This fund was established in 1987 in memory of Mrs. Abbott '45 by her daughter, Judy Wasko. Income from the fund is used to aid a music student with financial need.

John S. Adams Memorial Scholarship Fund

This fund was established in 2012 through a bequest from the estate of John Sidney Adams. Mr. Adams was a lifelong resident of Trumbull County, Ohio. He graduated from Warren G. Harding High School in Warren and served in the Air Force during the Korean War. Mr. Adams believed strongly in the importance of higher education and considered Westminster College to be “an excellent educational institution.” Income from the fund will be used to provide scholarship assistance to students from middle income families in eastern Ohio and western Pennsylvania who represent a “good fit” for Westminster College, but whose family circumstances do not qualify for federal need-based grant assistance. This merit-based scholarship is intended to encourage good students to attend Westminster; students who may not otherwise be in a financial position to do so. Awards are renewable provided student recipients remain in good academic standing. No student shall receive the award for more than four years of undergraduate study. The award is made at the discretion of the director of financial aid.

Dr. and Mrs. John G. Albright Memorial Scholarship Fund

The income from a bequest in 1975 from the estate of Dr. and Mrs. John G. Albright is used for scholarships for students majoring in physics, chemistry or mathematics. Dr. Albright was visiting professor of physics at Westminster from 1955-65.

John Alldred Scholarship Fund

The income from a bequest in 1963 from the estate of John Alldred of Pittsburgh, Pa., is used to assist students “with ability and character who have financial need.”

Mary Margaret Allen Scholarship Fund

Dr. Joseph Galbraith Alter Scholarship Fund

This fund was established in 1991 in memory of Dr. Alter '48 by bequest of Verna Frances Alter, his wife. The income provides support to the College's student financial aid program for otherwise unfunded costs of college-named scholarship awards as designated by the Board of Trustees.

Alumni Scholarship Fund

This fund, created in 1981 by gifts from alumni, provides income for scholarships.

Bayard Amelia Scholarship Fund

This endowed scholarship was established in 1999 by a planned gift from Mr. Bayard Amelia, a friend of Westminster College. The income from this fund will be used on an annual basis for a student based on financial need. The student is to be determined by the director of financial aid.

Doris and Jack Andrews Academic Scholar Award

The fund was established in 2007 by the trustees of The Doris and Jack Andrews Trust: Dr. William H. Bunn Jr., Gregory L. Ridler, and Paul J. Williams, a Westminster alumnus from the Class of 1965. The award is intended as a memorial tribute to the lives of Mahoning County philanthropists, Doris and Jack Andrews. Income from the fund will support one award every four years. Preference will be given to a first-year student from Mahoning County who was graduated from a Mahoning County high school; second preference will be given to a student from either Trumbull or Columbiana counties.

The recipient will be assured of assistance for four (4) consecutive years provided he/she maintains an overall GPA of 3.00 or better and remains a good citizen of the campus and larger community. Primary criteria for this merit-based award are outstanding academic achievement and leadership potential. Financial need is not a consideration. The recipient must have earned a minimum cumulative high school GPA of 3.50 in college preparatory subjects and participated in academically-oriented extra curricular, service and civic activities. The Andrews Scholar will be selected by the vice president for academic affairs and dean of the college, the dean of admissions and enrollment management and the director of financial aid.

Michael F. Anthony '77 Scholarship Fund

Michael was a business administration major and member of the Alpha Sigma Phi fraternity while attending Westminster College. Upon graduation, he began a 40-year career in the retail industry to include chairman, president and CEO of Brookstone Inc. and most recently, chairman, president and CEO of Things Remembered Inc. This renewable, merit-based scholarship was established in 2016 and is awarded to an incoming freshman student who graduated from Corry Area High School in Corry, Pa., or second preference, a school district in Erie County, Pa., who is in good academic standing with high academic achievement and demonstrated leadership qualities.

Carolyn Dines Arfken Scholarship Fund

This endowed fund was established in 1998 by George B. Arfken in memory of his wife, Carolyn Dines Arfken, a 1945 graduate of the College. The income from the fund is awarded annually to a student or students on the basis of academic achievement. The recipient will be chosen by the director of financial aid.

Clyde A. Armstrong Memorial Scholarship Fund

This fund was established in 1976 by gifts from Mr. Armstrong's family and friends. A member of the Class of 1919, he served Westminster with distinction as a member of the College's Board of Trustees for 32 years, including seven as president of the Board. He also originated the Annual Giving Fund of the Alumni Association. The memorial fund will support scholarships for students demonstrating academic promise and leadership through involvement in extracurricular activities.

This fund was established in 2005 to honor Professor Emeritus Ron Bergey for his 42 years of dedicated service to Westminster College from 1962-2004. The scholarship was made possible through contributions received from alumni and friends to the Ron Bergey Project in Old Main Memorial. Income from the fund will be awarded each academic year to one outstanding Westminster accounting major who has completed at least 16 semester hours in accounting, who has written a letter of application for the scholarship to the Department of Economics and Business, and who intends to enter the accounting profession. The Ron Bergey Accounting Scholarship shall be awarded at the discretion of the Department of Economics and Business and the director of financial aid based on achievement and not necessarily on financial need.

George R. and Sharon Berlin Endowed Honors Scholarship Program

This fund was established in 2012 by George R. and Sharon Berlin to support Westminster's Honors Program and its most academically promising students. Income from the fund shall be used to initially provide scholarship support for a minimum of up to two (2) students admitted into the Honors Program and may be supplemental to other forms of merit or need-based aid awarded by the College. Eligible recipients will have a minimum 1300 SAT or 29 ACT score and a recalculated high school GPA of 3.75 or higher. Awards will be renewable to a maximum of four years provided the recipient(s) maintains a 3.50 GPA.

William Berlin Scholarship Fund

This fund was established in 1996 by Mr. George Berlin in memory of his father, Mr. William Berlin, who served as a trustee of Westminster College from 1961-1969. The scholarship(s) will be awarded annually to students who plan to enter the Christian ministry or pursue a religious vocation. These students must also have maintained high standards of scholarship, been actively involved in community service, and demonstrate some form of special need. The determination of special need will be made by the director of financial aid, and may include such factors as unusual circumstances, which contribute to the hardship and family income. If there are no candidates in a given year who meet all of these criteria, the president of the College and the dean of admissions will award the scholarship to a student who best exemplifies its general ideas of academic achievement, a commitment to service and some form of special need.

George R. and E. Charmaine Kerr Memorial Scholarship Fund

This fund was established in 2013 by a gift from Charmaine Kerr as a way to provide ongoing support to her beloved Westminster College. George R. Kerr, a Pittsburgh native, enrolled in Westminster immediately upon returning from duty in the United States Army Air Corps during WWII. Shortly thereafter, Charmaine Hazen of Ellwood City, Pa., enrolled at Westminster. The college sweethearts were married shortly after graduation, lived in the Pittsburgh area for many years, and then moved to Tampa, Fla. George (B.A., 1949) was known for his outgoing personality and sense of humor. He went into business, but his main passion was Westminster football and he maintained strong ties to the Department of Athletics until his death in 1997. Charmaine (B.B.A., 1950) was known for her warm, gentle spirit and an appreciation for all things beautiful. Those traits, along with her attention to detail, led her to the avocation of painting porcelain art, which she continued until her death in 2012. Mr. and Mrs. Kerr were enormously proud of their beloved alma mater and remained faithful friends of the College throughout their lives. Income from the fund will be used to provide scholarship assistance to a first year student majoring in business. Selection will be based upon academic merit and financial need. The award is made at the discretion of the director of financial aid. This award is renewable for three additional years provided the student remains in good academic standing. A change in major does not affect the renewability of this award.

Dr. Chris A. Knight '76 and Lee W. Knight '07 Scholarship Fund

This endowed scholarship was established in 2016 by father and son alumni who both were recipients of scholarships while attending Westminster. Both were actively involved in extracurricular activities including Sigma Nu Fraternity and sports. Dr. Knight was a three- year letter winner for football and Lee was a four-year winner for swimming. The renewable scholarship is awarded to incoming freshmen in good academic standing who have an interest in physical sciences or the field of business. First preference is given to students from Boardman High School or Austintown-Fitch High School; second preference to students who graduated from a district in the greater Mahoning Valley; and third preference, a district in Ohio.

Paul Krakowski Scholarship Fund

This fund was established in 1997 by Paul Krakowski '45. The income will be awarded with first preference going to a first-year minority student who aspires to a career in written communications and who has an interest in writing for the print media. The award is based on scholarship and financial need with the recipient determined by the director of financial aid working in cooperation with the chair of the Department of Communication Studies and the director of the Office of Diversity Services. If no student can be identified to meet the first preference criteria, the award will be made to a first-year minority student at the discretion of the director of financial aid.

Dr. Robert & Susan Krampf Nursing Scholarship

This Fund was established in 2019 by Dr. Robert '64 & Susan Krampf, to assist deserving students as they pursue a career in the field of nursing. This Fund is in support of the mission of Westminster College to help men and women develop competencies, commitments, and characteristics which have distinguished human beings at their best. The liberal arts tradition is the foundation of the curriculum continually designed to service this mission in a rapidly changing world. The College sees the well-educated person as one whose skills are complemented by ever-developing values and ideals identified in the Judeo-Christian tradition. Income from this Fund shall be awarded annually, to a student who is enrolled in the nursing program. The candidate will be a well-rounded person, demonstrating high character, integrity, work ethic and strong academic achievement. The scholarship will be awarded at the discretion of the Director of Financial Aid to a student, without regard to financial need, who will positively represent the values of Westminster College in the medical field.

Henrietta Lee Fellowships and Scholarships

Income from this fund, established in 1941, is used to provide scholarships for young men and women, which are applied to their senior year expenses. The Henrietta Lee Senior Fellowships are awarded to students with outstanding scholastic records at the end of the junior year. The Henrietta Lee Scholarships are awarded to juniors in recognition of creative achievement and scholastic performance. Both the scholarship and the fellowship winners are announced at the Spring Honors Convocation. Five or more juniors are honored annually with Henrietta Lee awards.

Lemmon Family Scholarship

This fund was established in 2012 through the estates of Helen Louise Lemmon and Margaret Lemmon Janisse. Together, these bequests represent the largest gift received in Westminster's history. Helen Louise Lemmon entered the College in 1938 and completed two full years of study with a major in secretarial science. Margaret "Peggy" Lemmon Janisse entered with the Class of 1935 and completed three years of study. Pursuant to their defined wishes, the scholarship is intended to honor the life and memory of their parents, George Steele Lemmon and June Saxman Lemmon and their sister, Martha Jane Lemmon. The Lemmon Family believed strongly in the importance of higher education. They lived with a genuine appreciation for hard work and an understanding of philanthropic responsibility. Income from the fund will be used to provide assistance for first-year students enrolled in the College's pre-health profession curriculum with first preference given to pre-med majors. The award is renewable provided the recipients follow and demonstrate ongoing progress in the required pre-health profession program. The Medical Professions Advisory Committee will formally review students yearly to assess progress and ongoing eligibility for the Lemmon Family Scholarship. Recipients will be selected by the vice president for admissions and financial aid and the director of financial aid with advisement from the Medical Professions Advisory Committee.

Norman and Clara Levy Memorial Scholarship Fund

This fund was established in 1987 by bequest from Mrs. Levy. Income is used to further the Christian education of young students who without such aid would be unable to complete their education.

Ligo French Scholarship Fund

This fund was established in 1991 in memory of Ida Louise Ligo '15 and Alice E. Ligo '25 by bequest of Alice E. Ligo, former French professor at Westminster. The income provides scholarships to be awarded on the basis of merit to students majoring in French with specific provisions to be at the discretion of the French faculty of the College but with the understanding that the recipients would be able, where appropriate, to use their scholarships when enrolled in approved off-campus programs.

Ligo Scholarship Fund

This endowed fund established in 1981 as a memorial to Ida L. Ligo '15, is the first endowed fund designated for use in the Alumni Grant- in-Aid Scholarship Program.

Suzanne Lilly Internship For Intellectual Disability

This fund was established from unused fees for service from the discontinued IM4Q Grant Program, the purpose of which was to serve the Mercer County, PA mental health/intellectual disabilities population. Recognizing the value of experiential internship opportunities as a way for students to enhance their classroom study through the exploration of career options and acquisition of professional skills, and recognizing that in today's working environment significant expense can be associated with high-quality internship experiences, Westminster College, in cooperation with the IM4Q grant coordinator, Dr. Gary D. Lilly, has chosen to endow these funds to support internships that benefit the mental health/intellectual disabilities population.

Ken and Nancy Long Chemistry Lectureship

This fund was established by Dr. Ken and Nancy Long in 2006 to fund an annual lecture in the broad field of chemistry. Dr. Long taught in the Department of Chemistry at Westminster from 1962-2002. The faculty of the Department of Chemistry has the responsibility for deciding whom to invite, the topic, scheduling and other logistical concerns each year.

Emily and Ronald Mackall Scholarship Fund

This fund was established in 2007 through a bequest from Emily Parker Mackall, an alumna of the Class of 1934. The fund represents a memorial tribute to Mrs. Mackall and her husband, Ronald B. Mackall. Mrs. Mackall distinguished herself through her lifelong dedication to higher education, reflected in both her professional life and her service to the field. A New Castle native, she was graduated with honors from Westminster College in 1934 with a dual degree in mathematics and economics and earned an MBA from Northwestern University where she was one of the first women admitted to graduate studies in the prestigious Kellogg School of Business Administration. Mrs. Mackall served as a member of the Westminster College Board of Trustees from 1994-2002. Income from the fund is awarded at the discretion of the director of financial aid. Scholarship recipients must have a minimum GPA of 3.00 and be good citizens of the campus and larger community. The scholarship is renewable for up to four years.

Ronald B. and Emily P. Mackall Scholarship Fund

Established in 1996, the Mackall Scholarship is awarded to a full-time junior or senior student who has completed at least one year of Principles of Economics and has demonstrated an appreciation for the fine arts via course work and participation in performances. Consideration will be given to students who have successfully completed course work in both disciplines. Preference will be given (although not exclusive) to candidates who reside in the following counties: Columbiana and Mahoning in Ohio; Lawrence and Mercer in Pennsylvania. Applicants must have a cumulative GPA of 3.00 in all college work. Applicants may apply for this scholarship through the Department of Economics and Business (chair) by Jan. 31 of the academic year. Finalists will be identified and one candidate selected by a subcommittee of three tenured faculty and the associate dean.

Dr. Peter W. Macky Memorial Service Award

This scholarship award will honor a third-year student who exhibits Christ-like service to the campus and the larger community, and whose example of dedication and caring for others inspires other students and exemplifies the best qualities of the human spirit. This award is not intended as a “most active” service award based on a listing of activities. The depth and impact of service are the main criteria. Only third-year students are eligible for the award, and payment/use will be applied to the fourth year of study at Westminster College. There are no restrictions as to declared major, GPA, or financial need. The award will be presented at the annual Spring Honors Convocation. Students must be nominated in writing by a faculty member, and the recipient will be selected by the admissions and financial aid committee. Members of the Macky family will be informed of the nominees and their qualifications and, within one week of notification, may submit comments to the director of financial aid for consideration.

Dr. Peter W. Macky Memorial Soccer Award

This non-cash award will honor a third-year or fourth-year member of the Westminster men’s soccer team who enhances morale by exhibiting to the team Christ-like service as determined by the coach, soccer team members, and other designated judges. This award is not intended as a “most valuable player” skill award. Rather, it is intended to recognize the individual whose example of dedication and caring for others on the team and in the community inspires the best in the players.

The Dr. Harry S. Manley and Carolyn H. Manley Scholarship Fund

This fund was established in 2012 by Carolyn Hamilton Manley to honor the life and work of her husband, Dr. Harry S. Manley, and in gratitude for the education both received at Westminster. Dr. Manley graduated in 1942 and taught from 1945-1952. Mrs. Manley attended from 1945-1948. This scholarship will provide assistance to students majoring in political science with ability, character and demonstrated financial need. This scholarship is renewable provided the recipient remains enrolled as a political science major and is in good academic standing.

Deborah (Platt) Majoras '85 and John M. Majoras Scholarship Fund

Formally established in 2016, the need-based scholarship is awarded to an incoming freshman who graduated from high school in good academic standing and demonstrated extra-curricular and/or community engagement. Preference will be given to students from Meadville Area High School in Meadville, Pa.; second preference, Crawford County, Pa.; and third preference, northwestern Pa. The scholarship is renewable provided the student remains in good academic standing.

Thomas V. and Margaret Mansell Scholarship Fund

This fund was established in 1979 in honor of the Mansells on the Golden Anniversary of their graduation by their four children, all graduates of Westminster, Mary Lou '58, Thomas S. '61, Elizabeth '63, and Charles Y. '68. Mr. Mansell is former vice chairman of Westminster's Board of Trustees.

Laura Marquis Scholarship Fund

Income from this fund, established in 1939, is available to graduates of New Castle High School.

Clarence J. Martin Scholarship Fund

This fund was established in 2013 by the family, friends, and colleagues of Dr. Clarence J. Martin, Professor of Music Emeritus. Dr. Martin received his B.Mus., from Houghton College; M. Mus., from Indiana University; and D.M.A., from the University of Cincinnati. The fund honors Dr. Martin's devotion to music education and choral direction and recognizes his 41 years of service to the students and faculty within the Department of Music at Westminster College and to the greater Westminster College community. Income from this fund is awarded annually to provide scholarship assistance to a deserving first-year music major with demonstrated financial need. This award is renewable provided the student remains in good academic standing and enrolled as a music major. The award is made at the discretion of the director of financial aid working in consultation with the chair of the Department of Music.

Will R. Maurer II '53 and Carol Jean (Young) Maurer '62 Scholarship Fund

This endowed scholarship was established by Will and Carol Jean Maurer in support of the mission of Westminster College. Income from this fund will provide scholarship assistance to an incoming freshman who graduated from high school in good academic standing with financial need. As a first preference, this scholarship will be given to a student from Belle Vernon Area High School; second preference, to a student from Elizabeth Forward High School and as a final preference, to a student from southwestern Pennsylvania. The scholarship is renewable for the student's sophomore, junior and senior years provided he/she remains in good academic standing.

The award is to be made at the discretion of the chair of the Department of Music and the director of financial aid.

Dr. W. Donald McClure Memorial Scholarship Fund

This fund was established in 1977 by members of the Newlonsburg United Presbyterian Church, Murrysburg, Pa., where Dr. McClure '28 was pastor before beginning a 40-year career in the mission field in Ethiopia and the Sudan. The fund includes gifts from members of the church, Westminster alumni, and other friends. Income from the fund provides aid for students with need who are preparing for the pulpit ministry, either at home or in the mission field abroad.

Judson C. McConnell Scholarship Fund

This fund was established in 2006 by the Chapel Program Reunion Committee and presented to the Rev. Dr. Judson C. McConnell at Westminster's homecoming and reunion celebration on Saturday, Oct. 21, 2006. Gifts were received to honor Rev. McConnell and his outstanding service to Westminster College and her students. Rev. McConnell served as dean of the chapel and associate professor in the religion and philosophy department from 1959-1981 and as alumni director from 1981-1985. Income from this fund will be used to make an award in Rev. McConnell's name at the annual Spring Honors Convocation to a rising fourth year student with a recommended GPA of 3.00 and demonstrated financial need. The award will be presented to a student who mirrors Rev. McConnell's devotion to service and who has demonstrated that commitment to the campus community through participation in the Chapel Program and/or other campus or community service opportunities. This award is not exclusive to a student preparing for the ordained ministry or a church-related vocation, but rather it is intended as recognition for a student who understands that educational goals in any discipline can be a means to religious service to others. The recipient will be selected by the College chaplain in consultation with the director of financial aid.

Wallace E. McConnell Memorial Scholarship Fund

This fund was established in 1999 through a bequest of Dorothy H. McConnell in memory of her husband, Wallace E. McConnell '22. Income from the fund is used to assist students in the Chemistry Department. The recipient will be determined by the director of financial aid.

Dr. Margaret Engle McCullough Scholarship Fund

This fund was established in 2012 by Allen D. McCullough, an alumnus from the Class of 1950, to honor his wife, Dr. Margaret "Peg" Engle McCullough and her dedicated career as an educator and school administrator. Dr. McCullough entered Westminster College with the Class of 1953, but left after a year and a half. She eventually received her bachelor of arts degree from Kent State University, her master of arts degree from John Carroll University, and her Ph.D. from Kent State University. Dr. McCullough is an enthusiastic lifelong learner and has a genuine appreciation for the challenges faced by non-traditional students returning to College to pursue degrees. Income from the fund is awarded as scholarship assistance to a student with demonstrated financial need. First preference is given to a non-traditional student pursuing an undergraduate degree in education. Second preference is given to a traditional student pursuing a degree in education. The award will be renewable provided the recipient remains in good academic standing and enrolled as an education major. The award will be made at the discretion of the director of financial aid.

Robert T. and Virginia R. McDaniel Endowed Athletic Assistantship Program

This program will help provide permanent support for Westminster's new assistantship program. The program is designed to ensure a modest salary and housing for recent graduates interested in serving as athletic assistants (nine-month academic year) with recruiting and coaching responsibilities.

Robert T. and Virginia R. McDaniel Endowed Scholarship Fund

This fund was established in 1991 by Robert McDaniel '49 and his wife, Virginia Rupp McDaniel '49. The income is to be awarded annually first to needy education majors pursuing a career in special education, then to needy minority students majoring in elementary education, or finally, to needy students majoring in elementary education.

Anne McAuley McGill Memorial Endowment

This fund was established in 1996 by the family of Anne McAuley McGill '37. Mrs. McGill devoted her life to missionary work in Egypt with her husband, the Rev. Willis A. McGill '33. Income from the fund's investments is to be used solely for the preservation, enhancement, and use of the College's collection of cultural artifacts for educational purposes.

Harry W. McKean '82 Scholarship Fund

The income from a bequest in 1963 from the estate of Harry W. McKean, Kansas City, Kan., provides scholarship aid for deserving students.

Delber McKee Scholarship for Excellence in History/International Relations

This fund was established in 2018 by the family of Delber L. McKee. Dr. McKee joined the history department of Westminster College in 1952. He became chairman of the Department of History, Political Science and Sociology in 1956 and continued in that capacity until 1979. He was acting dean of the College in 1977. He retired from Westminster College in 1989, but continued to be engaged with Westminster, specifically through his work in an emeritus capacity as curator of the cultural artifacts collection between 1991 and 2000. The inclusion of "International Relations" in the scholarship title is a reflection of the fact that his Ph.D. dissertation was on Asian/American relations during the late 19th and early 20th centuries and he maintained this interest through the remainder of his academic career. This scholarship will provide assistance to students who have declared an interest in history and/or international relations and have demonstrated high academic achievement.

Mary McKinney Eichenauer Bible Award

To promote interest in the study of the Bible, these awards were established in 1936 by J. B. Eichenauer of Pittsburgh in memory of his wife. Three prizes are announced at the Spring Honors Convocation. Prize winners are determined by the results of a competitive examination conducted by the Department of Religion, History, Philosophy and Classics.

Kevin M. McManus Excellence in Jazz Award and Scholarship

This fund was established in 2014 by an anonymous donor and friend of Westminster College. The fund was created to honor Kevin M. McManus, director of the Westminster College Jazz Ensemble, to recognize his stellar efforts in the direction of the Jazz Ensemble and to assist in elevating the level of the Jazz Ensemble performance through recruiting and retaining talented students. Income from the fund shall be used to provide scholarship assistance to established or incoming students with demonstrated talent for participation in the Jazz Ensemble. Recipients do not need to be declared music majors or minors in order to qualify; however, recipients must be enrolled in the Jazz Ensemble for the Fall and Spring semesters unless an exception is made by the director of the Jazz Ensemble. Selection is made by the chair of the Music Department in consultation with Kevin M. McManus and the director of financial aid.

Pearl G. McNall Memorial Scholarship Fund

This fund was established in 2012 by action of the Board of Trustees to honor the life of Dr. Pearl G. McNall. Dr. McNall received her bachelor of science degree in chemistry from Westminster College in 1943. She worked as a research associate at the Mellon Institute before earning a medical degree from the University of Pittsburgh. She was board-certified in anesthesiology in 1952. She was the first woman on the senior medical staff at Mercy Hospital and served as chair of the Medical Advisory Board for the Myasthenia Gravis Association of Western Pennsylvania. In 1977, Westminster College conferred an honorary degree upon Dr. McNall for her many professional accomplishments in the research and medical fields, and for her devotion to the College. Income from the fund is awarded to a student with demonstrated financial need. The award is made at the discretion of the director of financial aid.

She has been recognized as a leader in using technology to teach mathematics at the college level and is co-author of Explorations in College Algebra, now in its 6th edition. The recipient must show an ability to perform acts of charity, selflessness, and a love for his/her faith on campus and in the community.

Coach Gene Nicholson Leadership and Service Award

This honors a student who has demonstrated outstanding leadership and service to the campus and off-campus communities throughout his/her Westminster career with a $1,000 scholarship award. Special consideration will be given for volunteer work with youth. The award will be made to a student in his/her junior year without regard to financial need. The recipient must have a cumulative GPA of 3.00 or above at the end of their sophomore year. Nominations for the award may be made by any Westminster faculty member, administrator, and staff member, and the recipient will be selected by the College's enrollment management council. The award will be presented at the annual Spring Honors Convocation. The award was established to honor Coach Gene Nicholson—and the values he exemplified—upon his 2007 retirement by a group of alumni swim team members and friends.

Coach Gene Nicholson Swimmer/Diver Scholar Recognition Award (Non-Cash Award)

This non-cash award program will honor excellence in academics by swim team members. Students will be eligible for these honorary recognition awards in their junior and senior years. Qualifying criteria include membership in the swim team, full-time enrollment at Westminster College, and attaining a cumulative GPA of 3.30 or better at the end of the first semesters of the junior and/or senior years (students who have been placed on academic/disciplinary probation in their junior and/or senior years are not eligible to receive the award). Awards will be presented at the annual Swim Team banquet. Recipients will receive an appropriate commemorative item (such as a plaque, framed certificate, etc.). The award was established to honor Coach Gene Nicholson—and the values he exemplified—upon his 2007 retirement by a group of alumni swim team members and friends.

Elizabeth Nixon Memorial Scholarship Fund

The Elizabeth Nixon Memorial Scholarship was established in memory of Elizabeth Nixon, associate professor of journalism at Westminster from 1946 until her death in 1956. From a fund established in 1961 by her students, alumni, and colleagues and other friends, this annual scholarship aid is awarded at the Spring Honors Convocation to junior public relations students who demonstrate exceptional promise in public relations and journalism, based on scholarship and need.

John Orr Scholarship Fund

In 1972 to honor Dr. John Orr, Professor Emeritus of Religion, a group of alumni enlarged the fund he established in 1962 as the Karux Bible Award. Annually, the interest from this new fund is awarded to a seminary-bound pre-ministerial student who has done outstanding academic work in a minimum of four courses in the field of religion. The scholarship, determined on the basis of three and one-half years' record, is announced by the chair of the Department of Religion, History, Philosophy and Classics.

Will W. and Eloise Orr Scholarship Fund

This fund was established to honor the memory and the ministry of Dr. Will W. Orr, the ninth president of Westminster College (1949-67), and his wife, Eloise Reid Orr '66. Dr. and Mrs. Orr cared deeply for the Presbyterian Church and saw Westminster as a place where leadership of the church could be nurtured and strengthened. This scholarship grants aid to incoming students who have demonstrated leadership in their local Christian congregation and who have potential to be leaders of the church. Awards are based on application (available in the Office of Financial Aid) and recommendations from the student's pastor or youth minister. The award may be renewed for the second, third and fourth years at the discretion of the Chaplain's Office based upon recipient's character, participation in Christian events, bible study, chapel programming, and volunteer service to others.
