1. The main goal of this course is the completion, presentation and documentation of a large scale group or individual project.

2. All projects are to be presented at the Undergraduate Research & Arts Celebration at Westminster on Wednesday, April 24.

3. First drafts of your final writeup are due the week of April 22. Final drafts are due May 6. You will be required to read and critique two of your classmates first drafts.

4. Missing 3 or more class meetings will result in a non-passing grade for this class (D+ or lower). You are also expected to have regular meetings with your project advisor.
